

Presentation Application Form

Due: Friday, October 6, 2017

CALL FOR Y2Y PRESENTERS!

The Youth to Youth Conference is a platform for students to learn, develop skills, and network with each other in a safe space. To kick start the 2017-2018 school year, we are looking for a diverse group of student advisory boards, organizations, or individuals who would like to present at this year's Y2Y. Presentations should be within one of three categories: leadership, adolescent health, or a track for adult allies. These presentations should help students and their adult allies create an impact on student health, bring awareness and increase student visits at the Wellness Centers. We encourage submitted workshop proposals to include an activity that engaging and informative.

Below are some workshop topics to consider.

Remember to be creative and have fun!

- Advocacy and Policy
- "Life After High School" --Workforce Readiness
- Alcohol and Other Drugs Prevention and Education
- Sexual & Reproductive Health
